

SHARON NAHARI

International Extradition, INTERPOL
and White Collar Crime Lawyer

Professional Profile | 2026

nahari-law.co.il

Professional profile

Criminal defence with an international focus

Nearly three decades

of criminal litigation and strategic defence in complex, sensitive and high profile matters.

Founded in 1998

Founder of Sharon Nahari & Co. Law Offices, with a practice spanning Israel and foreign jurisdictions.

Courtroom and cross border experience

Extensive appearances before Israel's criminal courts and Supreme Court. International work includes extradition, INTERPOL, financial crime, cybercrime, cryptocurrency matters and parallel proceedings across several jurisdictions.

He advises businesspeople, public figures and foreign nationals facing international investigations, arrest requests and asset proceedings.

International extradition practice

Proceedings across Europe, the United States and other jurisdictions

Core work

- Extradition requests to and from Israel
- INTERPOL Red Notices and CCF applications
- European Arrest Warrants
- United States federal extradition matters
- International arrest and detention
- Financial, cyber and cryptocurrency investigations
- Money laundering and asset seizure
- Diplomatic and humanitarian intervention

International reach

Nahari has coordinated matters involving the United Kingdom, Germany, France, Italy, Romania, Greece, Cyprus, Spain, Belgium, the Netherlands, Belarus, Russia, Ukraine, Georgia and the United States.

His wider professional network extends across Latin America and other regions where local counsel must act quickly in detention, extradition and INTERPOL proceedings.

Selected international matters

Representation in detention and extradition proceedings

Maya Reiten-Stoll

Led legal and diplomatic efforts following the Israeli lawyer's detention in Belarus. She was released and returned to Israel.

Rabbi Eliezer Berland

Acted in the Dutch proceedings after his arrest in Amsterdam and helped secure his release under restrictive conditions while the extradition process continued.

Yitzhak Abergil

Represented Abergil in international proceedings, including extradition related matters involving European jurisdictions and the United States.

Selected international matters

High profile proceedings and international enforcement

Simon Leviev | The Tinder Swindler

Represents Simon Leviev in international proceedings involving arrest requests, INTERPOL cooperation and a German extradition request. International reporting identifies Nahari as his extradition counsel.

Shai Avital

Acted in international proceedings arising from Avital's arrest in the Netherlands and the request for his return to Israel.

Rostislav Panev | LockBit proceedings

His professional record includes involvement in the Israeli extradition phase concerning Panev, whom United States authorities charged with alleged participation in the LockBit ransomware group. The DOJ source confirms the case and extradition, but does not identify Israeli counsel.

Professional leadership and teaching

Building extradition knowledge and international cooperation

Israel Bar Association

Founder and Chairman of the Extradition and International Crimes Committee, established at his initiative to strengthen professional knowledge and international cooperation.

International professional activity

Active in the Defence Extradition Lawyers Forum and European professional discussions on extradition, EAW proceedings and INTERPOL matters.

Lecturing and publications

Lectures in academic and professional settings on criminal procedure, white collar crime, extradition and international criminal law. His teaching includes professional programmes organised through Practical Law.

His legal commentary and professional analysis appear in Israeli and international media and legal platforms. He also leads Global Lawyers Link, a network focused on cross border legal coordination.

International Extradition and the European Arrest Warrant

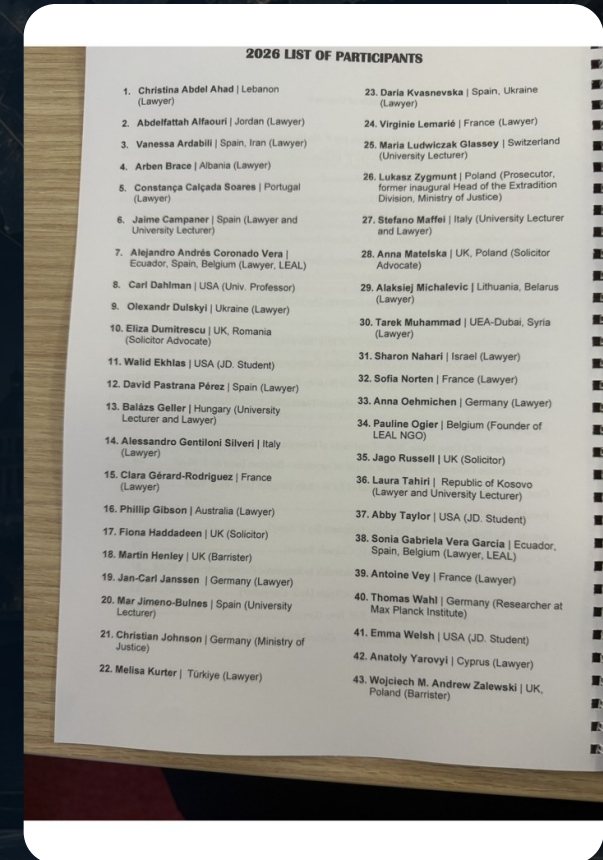

Lake Iseo, Italy | 22 to 23 June 2026

Ninth edition

Nahari was invited to take part in the international seminar alongside lawyers, prosecutors, academics and government officials from Europe, the United States, the Middle East and other regions.

The programme addressed extradition case law, INTERPOL Red Notices, SIS alerts and procedural safeguards in EAW proceedings.

The official participant list identifies Sharon Nahari as the Israeli lawyer in the 2026 programme.

Recognition and international profile

Independent rankings, professional leadership and international media

Recognised practice

Sharon Nahari & Co. has received recognition in Israeli legal rankings, including Dun's 100 and BDI Code, for criminal law, white collar crime and international work.

International profile

His work combines courtroom advocacy, extradition strategy, diplomatic coordination and cooperation with foreign defence teams.

SHARON NAHARI

International Extradition

INTERPOL and Red Notices

White Collar Crime

Cross Border Criminal Defence

nahari-law.co.il

globallawyerslink.com

All allegations in referenced criminal matters remain subject to the presumption of innocence unless proved in court.

Sources: Dun's 100 / Official biography / International case coverage